

Why say

"Happy Holidays"?

Because between November 2022 and January 2023, common calendar, the world's major religions observe at least 29 different holidays, among other cultural festivals and events. Christmas (12/25) is a big one, among many.

Mawlid al-Nabi
(Islam)
10/7-8

Birth of Baha'u'llah
(Baha'i)
10/26-27

Hanukkah
(Judaism)
12/18-26

Las Posadas
(Latinos & Latin America)
12/16-24

Pancha
Ganapati
(Hinduism)
12/21-25

Solstice/ Yule (Wiccan, Pagan,
northern hemisphere)
12/21-1/1

Zartosht
No-Diso
(Zoroastrianism)
12/26

Kwanzaa (US & West African Diaspora)
12/26-1/1

Common
New Year
1/1

Epiphany
(Christian)
1/6

Bodhi Day
(Buddhism)
12/8

Especially if you don't know whether/ what someone celebrates, "Happy Holidays" is more accurate, inclusive, and simple.