

You are invited to Denver's debut of

CONNECT EFFECT

Where? University of Denver

What is it?

Created by an award-winning producer, and described by Forbes as a "game-changer," Connect Effect is a powerful 1-hour interactive, multimedia opportunity to elevate our shared humanity--and find hope in the process.

And to elevate the experience even further, it's intergenerational, with students, older adults, and community members of all ages.

When? Oct. 22, two shows:

- 4:30-5:30pm
- 7:00-8:00pm

[Arrive 20-30 mins prior to show time]

[Room details will be emailed after you RSVP]

Participants will be invited to special small-group chats with students in following weeks

Presented by:

The Knoebel Institute for Healthy Aging (KIHA) +
Undergraduate Student Government (USG) +
